YOU THINK OF A POLICY

Are you sick or hurt then it is too late to take out one.
You don't know what you are doing until you know in your heart you've done your duty to those you have to provide for.
Accident and health insurance is cheaper than you think for. The cost is small and you won't miss the expenditure—Don't delay. Delays are dangerous.

CONSTABLE HOL- STEIN KILLED BY COTHRAN.

AN ATTEMPT TO AR- REST SLAYER ENDS IN OFFICER'S DEATH.

THE OUTCOME OF A LAW SUIT. MC CORMICK THE SCENE OF A DIFFICULTY IN WHICH STATE CONSTABLE LOST HIS LIFE.

Special to The State.

Augusta, Ga., Jan. 23.—Mr. J. C.
Holstein of McCormick, a member of the State constabulary, died in the Augusta city hospital this morning at 8 o'clock, having been brought to the city yesterday in a serious condition from a gunshot wound. Mr. Holstein was accompanied by Dr. R. M. Fuller of McCormick, who was with him un-til the end came, and escorted the re-mains to Mr. Holstein's former home at Batesburg this afternoon.

Dr. Fuller was seen by The State's representative and gave the following statement for publication:

"Mr. J. C. Holstein, State constable at McCormick, was shot by Mr.
Wade Cothran, a farmer living about two miles from McCormick. The shooting took place on Main street in the presence of a number of witnesses.

"Mr. Cothran and Mr. Tump Wide--man were about to get into an alter-cation when Mr. Cothran drew a 38 -calibre Smith & Wesson pistol. The town marshal, Mr. J. R. Brown, came upon the scene and placed Mr. Coth-ran under arrest, but he refused to give up his weapon. The marshal called upon Mr. Holstein for assis-tance. He stepped up and, it seems, took hold of the barrel of the weapon and requested Mr. Cothran to let him have the pistol. Mr. Cothran still re-fused and endeavored to pull the pis-tol from Mr. Cothran, when it was discharged. The bullet entered the chest, about two and a half inches be-low the nipple, on a line to the me-dial line, penetrating the diaphragm in two places, passing through the pericardium and through the lower lobe of the left lung, lodging under the skin, at a point of the shoulder blade.

"Mr. Holstein was taken to the city hospital by his physician on the after-noon train. He continued to grow worse until death ensued at 8 o'clock this morning. An autopsy revealed the fact that both the abdomen and plurac were filled with blood.

"Mr. Wade Cothran was cut two or three times by Mr. Wide-man after the shooting took place. His wounds were flesh wounds, and not likely to give him trouble.

"Mr. Holstein was cool and collect-ed. He walked nearly two blocks to the physician's office after the wound and was conscious until about 15 min-utes before he died. He made no statement in regard to the wound.

"His remains were shipped to Batesburg, his former home, on the 3:30 train this afternoon where the inter-ment will take place tomorrow. His father, mother, one brother and one sister survive him. The three came over to Augusta on the morning train, reaching here a short while after his death.

"Mr. Holstein was a young man about 29 years of age and well liked by everyone in McCormick, where he had been stationed for the past two and a half years. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and his friends were numerous."

HOLSTEIN CALLED ON BY THE TOWN MARSHALL.

STATE CONSTABLE WAS ASKED TO ASSIST IN MAKING THE AR- REST OF COTHRAN.

Special to The State.

Greenwood, Jan. 23.—Mr. J. C. Holstein, a State constable who has been stationed at McCormick for several years, died this morning in the Augusta, Ga., hospital as a result of a pistol-shot wound received yesterday morn-ing at the hands of Mr. W. M. Coth-ran at McCormick. Telephonic ad-vices from McCormick received here this afternoon state that Cothran is now being conveyed to Abbeville where he will be placed in jail.

From accounts it appears that Coth-ran took sides with a friend of his, named Palmer, in a lawsuit which had been instituted against Palmer by Mr.
Napoleon Wideman. Mr. Wideman alleged that Palmer was guilty of se-duction. After the suit Cothran had a personal difficulty with Mr. Wide--man and after this had ended Cothran was walking down the street flourish-ing his pistol and claiming that no one in the town of McCormick could arrest him. The town marshal called Con-stable Holstein to aid him in arrest-ing Cothran. The two men attempted to arrest Cothran and in the scuffle which ensued Cothran shot Holstein.
According to one of the earlier reports received here some one cut Cothran in the back while he was being held in an attempt to separate Wideman and himself and that he fired a shot which was fatal for Holstein. This report was not confirmed. Holstein was car-ried to Augusta immediately and was given the benefit of the best surgical treatment obtainable there, but he died this morning.

Mr. J. C. Holstein was a native of Batesburg and was a son of W. W.
Holstein, who was at one time sher-iff of Edgefield county. He was a member of the first class that entered Clemson college.

THE FUNERAL.

Mr. Holstein was buried Wednesday at half after two o'clock in the Holstein family burying ground.

The active pallbearers were friends and associates of Knights of Pythias, and came from McCormick, with the remains. They were Messrs J. E. Britt A. R. Bullock, W. Y. Quare, J. B. B.
Smith, Paul Smith, Edwards Talbert H. M. McCain, and J. C. Prioleau, Rev. N. N. Rurton, and Rev. E. T.
Hodgers, officiated at the house and the grave.

The honorary pallbearers were all mem-bers of the Batesburg Lodge, The fun-eral was a large one, many persons be-ing present from all parts for Saluda Lexington and other Counties.

ARRESTS AT JOHNSTON.

Johnston, Jan. 21.—While Ticket Agent J. W. Brown was out attend-ing to his duties at the 1:45 p. m. south-bound passenger train was at the station, Rurrell Robison, a negro lad, about 11 years old, slipped in the office and stole $5 from the cash drawer.
The money was missed and Robison pursued and captured, but he had made way with the money. This is the fourth or fifth time Robison has been caught at such tricks.

Chief Cato arrested a negro here yesterday who had committed a theft at Batesburg some days ago and soon after being locked up he broke out and left and has not yet been found.
